Re: Replacement of Columbia Art Foundation Committee Member

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

Current member of the Columbia Arts Foundation, Rebecca Vogler, has taken a position in another city and is resigning from the Foundation committee. Due to her departure the open position needs to be filled. The Commission is recommending filling the open position with current Commission member Kevin Shults.

DISCUSSION:

Rebecca Vogler, long time member of the Cultural Affairs Commission and member of the newly formed Columbia Art Foundation, has taken a position in another city. Her departure leaves a vacancy on the Cultural Affairs Commission and the Foundation committee. The ordinance forming the committee states that the committee shall consist of the chair of the Commission and three members of the Commission. A member of the Commission will need to fill the open position. At their February 12th meeting the Commission recommended that current commissioner, Kevin Shults fill the open position. Kevin is a long term Commission member and has been an asset to the Office of Cultural Affairs. His term on the Commission will expire October 31st 2014.
