Saturday, May 21, 2011

Free Fun For All Ages!

Join us for a "reel" fun morning at the Fishing Derby at Philips Lake, 5050 Bristol Lake Parkway.

Age categories 10 & under and 11 & up - fun for the whole family!

Ages 16-64 must present valid Missouri Fishing License. Complete and turn in registration form on the back of this sheet.

9:00-9:30am Registration and Check-In

9:30am Philips Lake Dedication

Fishing Derby begins immediately following the dedication, and ends at 11:30am.

Fishing Derby Rules and Information

- Registration is required to participate and be eligible for prizes in the Fishing Derby. Pre-registration can be done at the downtown Parks & Recreation office or the ARC, by fax 874-7640 or by mail, or between 9:00-9:30am at the derby
- The Philips Lake Park dedication will be at 9:30a.m.
- The Fishing Derby will begin following the dedication, and will end at 11:30a.m.
- By law, a valid Missouri Fishing License is required for participants between 16-64 years old. Missouri fish and wildlife rules and regulations apply to all
- One fishing pole per registered person. You must be registered to be eligible for prizes. You may use your own fishing pole and bait, or some will be on hand for use at the derby provided by Missouri Department of Conservation
- Fish caught prior to the official start of the derby or after 11:30a.m. will not be eligible for prizes
- All fishing must be done from the banks only
- Use trashcans for all trash. Keep the park clean.
- When you catch a fish, have it measured by a fishing derby staff/volunteer. Return all fish to the lake immediately after they are measured. This derby is catch-and-release only.
- A prize will be awarded for the first fish caught, the longest fish and the shortest fish in each age category. There are two age categories: ages 10 & under and ages 11 & up.
